

III Choose the most appropriate blank in which to place the given word in order to complete each sentence below.

(1) at

When it was  five, many of the employees began to look  restless and kept  checking the clock with the  least effort to  hide their wish to visit  the stadium where their favorite team was going to have a go  becoming the league champion.

(2) by

Though many people felt it was simply  chance that allowed the scientist to make  the discovery, it was actually  the way in which she could not stand  failure and would not sit  when something went  wrong that made her so successful.

(3) for

As he made  the door, the boy suddenly remembered  what he had forgotten to do, and quickly asked  his mother to give  the neighbors the flyers that advertised  the play opening  tonight.

(4) in

Despite having  pain, she tried to find  a way in which she could  hurry to work, but it was  no use and she had to call  the office and ask someone to fill  for her.

(5) up

As the students kept  wasting  electricity and did not give  any thought to the environment nor make  an effort to end  the increase of greenhouse gases, their teacher made them look  the issue on the Internet.

IV Choose the best item from the box with which to fill the blanks in the passage below. You may use each item only ONCE.

A above	B down	C for	D into	E off
F out	G over	H through	I up	J with

When I visited the doctor the other day, she told me that I was overweight, and that I should cut  on fatty foods. I tried to tell her that I was careful about what I ate, but was quickly cut  by the doctor. She measured  my blood pressure, and as it was very high, she warned me that I should not let work cut  my leisure time. My new job in the office is always very busy, and I started to worry that I just wasn't cut  for that type of work. The pay, however, is very good—a cut  that of the company I used to work for.